

<<PRESS RELEASE>> 06 January 2008. Denver, CO: "Goss chooses the Constitution Party - Insanity?" Released by Goss4Governor Campaign, Benjamin Goss, gubernatorial candidate, American Constitution Party.

Voting for the American Constitution Party is not insane. Rather, continuing to vote Democrat or Republican is the definition of insanity.

Why on Earth would anyone choose a party affiliation other than Democrat or Republican? In fact, many have suggested that perhaps choosing a party "other-than" is tantamount to throwing one's vote away. But what is the real impact of the failure of any third party to create a legitimate threat to the seemingly overwhelming power base of the Democrat and Republican parties? Answer...

Broken Policies
Broken Promises
Broken Finances
Broken Future

Einstein is quoted as having said, "insanity is doing the same thing over and over again, yet expecting different results ..."

It's time to step away from party affiliations and to step towards the concerns of the people.

It's time to stop bankrupting the futures of our children and grandchildren to subsidize the problems of today.

It's time to stop bailing out failing institutions with tax payer dollars, a.k.a. OPM - other people's money.

It's time to seize our own political destiny by continuing to energize a move towards responsible governance.

It's time to start driving innovation and creating jobs by getting the government out of business.

It's time to pay attention to how the government is seeking to define its role in our lives by redefining our rights safeguarded by the Bill of Rights.

It's time for each of us to engage with individual candidates and determine if they are really committed to protecting our rights as citizens.

The reality is that the Constitution Party does not need to dominate in an election. We only need to siphon enough votes away from the majority parties through educating voters of every affiliation as to the foundational issues at stake. From Democrat to Republican to 9-12'ers to Tea Partiers to Libertarians to Constitutionlists to the unaffiliated, everyone will respond if given the right information as to the policies of each candidate, the nature of their party, and so on.

Together, we can create a ground swell of change in the political landscape of your community, your county, our state, and our nation!
